

The NELM Show
Easy Brick Competition 2010
Portland, Maine
January 27, 2010

The NELM Show Easy Brick Competition hosted by Genest will take place Wednesday January 27, 2010 at The NELM Show, Portland Sports Complex, Portland Maine.

The Easy Brick Competition will be an opportunity for our industry's craftsman to showcase their skill, speed, and workmanship. Do you have what it takes to be the Easy Brick? We are looking for 6 Teams; each team will have a mason accompanied by their 2 tenders. The competition will really be a testament on how important teamwork is in masonry construction.

If you or someone in your company is up to the challenge to compete in this exciting competition, please complete the entry form and mail or fax it back to Genest no later than December 23, 2009. All entries will be eligible for the drawing to be held on December 28. If you are one of the six teams selected we will notify you immediately after the drawing. Further information on rules, schedules and contest details will be sent after teams are confirmed.

All contestants will compete for prizes.

Send in your entry form today!

Please complete the entry form on the back.

___ Yes, I would like to compete in the NELM Easy Brick Competition.

I have completed the contestant information below and would like my entry to be included in the drawing being held on December 28, 2009. I know only 6 teams will be selected from the many that will enter. This contestant entry form will be included with all other entries and be part of a random drawing. Selection will be final and all entries will be notified of the drawing results in writing.
